STRENGTHS-DRIVEN STRATEGIES FOR POWERFUL PRESENTATIONS

Great presentations start with understanding what YOU bring to the table. This program helps attendees leverage their natural talents to create and deliver presentations that feels aligned and authentic. Instead of focusing on what they're not good at, attendees will have the opportunity to embrace their strengths as a powerful tool for connection, engagement, and impact, while also understanding how to apply strengths in the areas of greatest challenge. This program requires attendees to have completed their CliftonStrengths® Top 5 assessment.

ATTENDEES WILL LEARN:

- What inherent talents they bring to their presentations
- How to lean into and cultivate the strengths they already have
- How to recognize missed opportunities for using strengths effectively
- How to apply strengths-based strategies to managing presentation weaknesses

MICRO-PRESENTATIONS: TIGHTEN YOUR TALK FOR MAXIMUM IMPACT

What would it be like if you could powerfully influence your audience to shift their thoughts, attitudes and behaviors in five minutes or less? Whether you're pitching an idea, engaging with legislators, presenting over Zoom, or speaking on a panel, you're being asked to deliver your message in shorter and shorter time frames. Lisa will show you exactly how to create a concise, crisp and compelling presentation when your speaking slot is tight. NETWORKING FOR HUMANS: CONNECTING WITH PURPOSE

Networking is an essential part of being a leader and promoting yourself and your work. But it can also feel contrived, stressful and demoralizing. We hope networking will look like a direct line to new relationships and business, but it's a much more winding journey with an unknown outcome. The key to building relationships through networking is putting connection first. We all want to be seen, heard and valued as humans, and we also have to see, hear and value those we meet in the artificial setting of a networking environment.

ATTENDEES WILL LEARN:

- How to prepare for networking
- How to be a giver, not a taker
- Elements of a professional introduction (aka "elevator speech")
- Tools for building relationships
- How and why to stand out in the crowd
- How to apply the People Pyramid and the Three Zones of Networking
- Following up in a timely and effective manner

This workshop is most effective with the addition of speed networking!

THERE IS NO LION: YOUR GUIDE TO PRESENTING WITH CONFIDENCE AND CALM

Public speaking nerves are completely normal. Even the most experienced speakers still get nervous before presentations (just like elite athletes still get nervous before the Olympics). Public speaking nerves have their roots in biology, chemistry and psychology, meaning that every human being has good reason for being nervous about speaking. It's not even practical to try to completely eliminate nerves, and in this training, I'll explain why!

ATTENDEES WILL:

- Learn the biology and chemistry behind nervousness and how to hack your own system
- Shift from anxiety to anticipation and intention
- Discover the art of engaging with your audience as a tool to manage nerves
- Get hands-on strategies to manage adrenaline and anticipatory stress before and during your talk
- Turn your anxiety into a catalyst for delivering impactful and memorable presentations

GET PSYCHED: SIX MINDSET SECRETS OF SUCCESSFUL SPEAKERS

Thought leaders and changemakers who have an important message to share often experience thoughts, attitudes and beliefs that hold you back from fully expressing yourself eloquently and confidently on stage. Successful communicators know that much of our success in influencing the attitudes, beliefs and behaviors of others stems from managing our own. We'll cover six mindset shifts and six action steps that will help you trust yourself, cultivate resilience, focus on strengths and possibilities, take action, and ensure that your time on stage is fun, productive and transformative for your audience!

ATTENDEES WILL LEARN:

- How to identify negative thoughts, attitudes and beliefs that are holding you back from being as effective as you could be on stage
- How to cultivate a practice for regular mindset awareness
- How to develop practical tools for upgrading your mindset

Learn how to ditch perfection, create connection, and influence others to take action!

FAST AND FOCUSED: VIDEO EDITION

GET IT DONE WEEK

You know that video is a great marketing tool for your message and your organization, but you freeze when it's time to make your own. You know you can foster change with your message, but you procrastinate and overthink because video seems complicated and time-consuming. You tell yourself, "Next week," but next week never comes. But here's the good news:

- Short videos don't have to be laborious.
- They don't have to look like anyone else's.
- You can create a system that makes video creation easy and fun.

ATTENDEES WILL LEARN:

- How to create videos quickly and easily—using low-tech tools.
- How to build an idea bank so they're never stuck.
- What makes them stand out and how to showcase their individuality
- How to set themselves up for success with a basic system

This is an accountability program focusing on progress over perfection!
